An Old Sore Healed.

I had a jainful, annoying sore on my log, near the knee, that troubled me for over two years. I tried various rendes, but the sace, instead of healing up, continued to grow larger, and to cause me more pain outil I began to look for a cratch. Through the advice of a friend, who was cared of a similar trouble, I took S. S. S., and in a few weeks was cared entirely. The sore healed up, and there is not even a sear left to mark the place. ## EVERYBODY KNOWS

Or ought to know that we are the only home manufacturing clothiers in the city, and that the clothing we sell is far superior to any other and does not cost you as much money. Our store has been crowded all week with purchasers and we can say with truth-what no other house can do-that nobody leaves our house without getting suited in goods and price. We don't pull your clothes off nor talk you dizzy in order to make you buy in elf-defense. Our salesmen are polite and attentive, and they | Self-defense. Our salegmen are politic and attentive, and they have positive instructions never to misrepresent or to take the slightest advantage of a customer in order to effect a sale. In this respect we differ from most houses in our line, and we are glad of it. Fall and medium-weight Overcoats are now ripe. Come and pluck one.

To Make a Home Out of a Household.

Hospitality and the giving of ceremon-leadness and the entertainments are by no means synonymous. A dinner party is no essential element in that easy and gradions hospitality which is the highest clearm of the home life. The ornaments of a home are the friends who frequent it; said Emerson. The pleasure of social interourses is so largely in the uniformation of the home life of the entertainment, but merely shares the resources of the hour, whatever they may thence to be. It is not so ment what we offer agnest, as the spirit in which it well of the entertainment, but however the home, "where love is, however, the three "where love is, however the standard elements." For the easy longitual-tites of the country, the five o'clock tea in the city serves admirably, and the enstant to one are meeting a demand of sincere life to be ever whelp handsled. in the city serves admirably, and the custom is to near meeting a demand of sincere life to be ever wholly banished by any captive of fashion. The best we can give a friend is the sweet intimacy of home life, the realy webone, the re-sponse of sympathy and interest. This is that true bespitality, for which more everemonial observances, while they have their place and no unimportant one life, yet offer no adequate substitute Ex.
